Documentary Direction & Production

- 2013 Cubos y permutaciones: plástica, música y poesía de vanguardia en México (Cubes and Permutations: Experimental Music, Visual Arts, and Poetry in Mexico), 2013. 20-min. documentary. Written, directed, and produced by Ana R. Alonso Minutti. Edited by Miguel Ángel Muñoz, Antonio Maldonado, and Astrid Oviedo

This documentary provides an aesthetic exploration of a series of artworks created by three central figures of the contemporary art scene in Mexico: visual artist Arnaldo Coen, composer Mario Lavista, and poet Francisco Serrano. Their interdisciplinary collaboration (1976-1981) represented a key moment in the country's avant-garde scene by using indeterminacy and open forms. In the film, the artists themselves narrate the origins of these pieces. The central image, that of the cube, undergoes a series of permutations of color, sound, and poetry
