Musical Play/ Infant-Toddler Classes

(Ages 0-3 & 3-5)

Teacher: Tania Hopkins

Play is the work of children! In this class parents and children play together to explore and experience music through singing, rhythmic and movement activities! Playful music making in community with others allows children to explore and develop their musical selves in safe, fun and developmentally appropriate ways.

Saturdays

Ages 0-3: 8:00-8:45, 9:00-9:45, 11:00-11:45

Ages 3-5: 10:00-10:45, 12:00-12:45

Fun with Singing (ages 4-6)

– the preschool division of the UNM Children's Chorus

Fun with Singing class creates a playful community for young children to discover the joys of singing. This class centers on playful ways of exploring the singing voice through singing games, vocal play and simple songs.

Saturdays 10:00-10:45

Musical Mosaic (Ages older 4-s-7)

Teacher: Holly Gilster

Like a beautiful mosaic composed of brightly colored bits and pieces, our Musical Mosaic Class will provide a colorful array of musical experiences for young children. This class will incorporate various modalities to appeal to a variety of early childhood learning styles through songs, instruments, adventures and dance, listening experiences, rhythmic movement and stories, poems, games and crafts.

Saturdays *8:00-8:45 ($75 - Special Rate for 8:00 only)

9:00-9:45, 10:00-10:45, 11:00-11:45, 12:00-12:45

"Music is a natural and important part of young children's growth and development. Early interaction with music positively affects the quality of all children's lives. Successful experiences in music help all children bond emotionally and intellectually with others through creative expression in song, rhythmic movement, and listening experiences. Music in early childhood creates a foundation upon which future music learning is built ... enduring attitudes regarding the joy of music making and sharing are developed."

UNM Children's Chorus

Tuition varies – see below

The UNM Children's Chorus is a non-auditioned chorus for any child who wishes to sing. Singers must be willing to work as a team, commit to weekly rehearsals and to pursue the development of musicianship through singing. The chorus performs in at least two concerts per year for the community.

Farolito Singers (Kindergarten – 1st grade) - $125

Teacher: Julia Church Hoffman

This group centers on early choral experiences through the performance of unison and simple part songs, movement, vocal exploration, singing games and songs designed to help each child discover their own voice in musically playful ways.

Wednesdays 5:15-6:15

Lobo Choir (2nd – 4th grades) - $130

Teacher: Penny Voss

Weekly rehearsals for the Lobo Chorus focus on pitch matching, simple musicianship skills and beginning part-singing experiences. The chorus will sing a varied repertoire of choral music.

Wednesdays 5:15-6:30

Para Cantar (5th - 8th grades) - $130

Teacher: Judy Castro

Para Cantar focuses on more advanced literature and musicianship skills. Rehearsals move at a faster pace and require some practice at home. Para Cantar is frequently invited to represent the UNM Department of Music at community events.

Wednesdays 5:15-6:45

Voice Class (ages 13-17) - $110

Teacher: Katie Dukes Walker

Open to middle/high school singers to explore and develop their singing technique. Singers must be in Para Cantar or High School Singers to take this class.

Wednesdays 4:15-5:00

High School Singers (9th-12th grades) - $130

Teacher: Regina Carlow

Some prior singing experience is recommended but not required. The High School Singers will focus on literature for mixed choir as well as advanced treble music and will represent UNMCC in community music events. Students will be encouraged to participate in both NMMEA and NMACDA All-State Choir Events as well as choral programs in their schools when possible. Weekly rehearsals will focus on both individual musicianship and vocal technique and will require practice outside of rehearsal.

Wednesdays 5:15-6:45
