Celebration of Improvisation

Join us in Keller Hall at 7:30 on November 11 for an evening of improvisation and jazz violin with Muni Kulasinghe (of Le Chat Lunatique) and friends. Tickets are $15 for adults and $10 for students. Muni is an alumni of Susan Kempter's violin studio and is new to the faculty at the UNM Lab School. He's offering a Wednesday evening class in improvisation for advanced violinists (Vivaldi G minor concerto and above). It's never too late to register! Contact Laurie at LJLopez@unm.edu for registration information.

The UNM Lab School has exciting events happening throughout the fall semester, and you and your students are invited to participate! Most are free of charge, and are offered as a service to our community.

Just For Parents, Keller Hall, 10am

October 17th: Susan Kempter shares her thoughts on "Can Doesn't Mean Should".

November 7th and February 6th Dr. Daniel Gallegos Love is Not Enough: Why parenting from the inside out is the key to your child's development.

April 16th: How My Parents Nurtured My Love of Music: A panel of high school and college students will offer their insights about how their parents juggled home life and practice AND nurtured their love of music—mostly without resorting to violence!

Plan ahead for MUSICAL MALARKEY IN MARCH!

March 12, 2016

12pm, Keller Hall

This silly spectacle will give students from all over the Albuquerque Area the opportunity to be as zany as possible. Students and faculty of the UNM Lab School and their friends from all over the surrounding area will present in groups or individually and promises to be fun for everyone! Contact Laurie at LJLopez@unm.edu to sign your students up.

We hope you to see many of you at one or all of these events this year. As always, please feel free to contact Susan or Laurie in the pedagogy office at 277.1878 with any questions you have, or email Laurie at LJLopez@unm.edu.
