Just For Parents

Dr. Daniel Gallegos will return to UNM to continue his discussion on epigenetic theory on February 6. On April 16th, we'll be joined by several successful UNM Lab School alumni for an open panel entitled "How My Parents Nurtured My Enthusiasm for Music". Both workshops will be from 10-11am in Keller Hall and are open to the public!

Mad About Music

A touring group based out of the Lab School, Mad About Music is a group of young musicians who perform folk music from all over the world. We are planning a trip to Ireland in May. They will be performing a fundraising concert in Keller Hall on St. Patrick's Day at 7pm, and will continue to sell breakfast snacks in the Popejoy Lobby most Saturdays this semester!

Greetings! We hope you had a wonderful, restful winter break. We are very excited to be back and are looking forward to an exciting spring semester. This newsletter contains information about the spring semester at the Lab School, including noon recitals, parent talks, and exciting opportunities for our interns and your students.

Noon Recitals are a great opportunity for your young musician to perform and celebrate the progress of their peers. This semester's noon recital dates are as follows:

1/30 in Keller Hall	3/12 in Keller Hall
2/6 in Keller Hall	4/2 in Keller Hall
2/20 in Keller Hall	4/9 in B120
2/27 in Keller Hall	4/16 in Keller Hall

EDUCATION AUDITORIUM

On February 26 and 27th, Mary Stroub and Vera McCoy-Sulentic will be here running a clinic for the interns in the String Pedagogy program. They will be observing group and private lessons in the Lab School. That weekend, your intern student may ask you to have a lesson at an unusual time so they can be observed by Mary or Vera. Please do your best to accommodate them so our interns and your students can benefit from this unique opportunity. In addition, Richard Schwabe, Director of Strings at the Colburn School in Los Angeles, will be observing in the Lab School at the end of April. We are excited to be offering these opportunities to your students and our interns.

Mad About Music, the advanced tour group from the Lab School, is going to Ireland May 31-June 7. They will be playing a benefit concert in Keller Hall on March 17th at 7pm. Bring a friend to celebrate St. Patrick's Day with us! MAM will also continue to run the snack bar in the lobby of the Popejoy Hall on Saturday mornings. MAM thanks you in advance for your continued support.

A NOTE ABOUT PARKING

Parking permits will be distributed by the second week of classes. Temporary permits are available for pick up. PLEASE DISPLAY THESE ON YOUR DASHBOARD. The UNM Lab School is not responsible for parking citations. We are no longer allowed to park for free in A Lot on Saturday mornings, so please follow the instructions on your permits!
